Functions

- Creation and maintenance of roads and flyovers, including the cleaning and lighting up of roadways
- Maintain sanitation and health (manage municipal hospitals, garbage collection and disposal, sewerage and water supply. Also responsible for prevention of epidemics)
- Register births and deaths, and hold authority over all crematoria and cemeteries in the city
- It is the office of record for urban property and responsible for setting up and enforcing building norms
- Maintenance of parks and public spaces, including beaches, and provision of coastal safety in the form of lifeguards at beaches and lighthouse maintenance
- Maintenance and running of municipal schools

Mayor

- The Mayor of Mumbai (Formerly Mayor of Bombay) is the first citizen of the Indian city of Mumbai (formerly Bombay)
- This person is the chief of the Municipal Corporation of Greater Mumbai, but the role is largely ceremonial as the real powers are vested in the Municipal Commissioner
- The Mayor also plays a functional role in deliberating over the discussions in the Corporation. Vishwanath Mahadeshwar of the Shiv Sena is the current Mayor of Mumbai

Municipal Commissioner

- The Municipal Commissioner of Mumbai is the chief executive officer of the Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation. Though the Mayor is the head of the house, his role is largely ceremonial and almost all powers are vested in the Commissioner
- The commissioner is an Indian Administrative Service officer appointed by the Maharashtra state government
- Ajoy Mehta, is the current Municipal Commissioner of Mumbai
